

We're looking for you.

Are you a person who has lived experience of intellectual and/or developmental disabilities? Have you experienced any of the things below:

- Do you have cancer?
- Have you been screened for cancer?
- Does someone you care about have cancer?

We are looking for advisors to join an advisory group for a study looking at cancer experiences .

Advisors will be compensated for their time.

What is the project?

WHAT

This study will look at cancer care among adults with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities

ROLE

As an advisory council member, you will attend about 1 meeting a month via Zoom to give us feedback on our study. You will be paid for your time with a virtual gift card.

WHY

Your feedback will help us create important recommendations for improving cancer care for individuals with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities.
